Sponsorship Terms:

All invoices for sponsorship will be paid by the due date (30 days prior to event). Failure to pay may result in removal from the event and may result in the disqualification to participate in future events.

Sponsor agrees:

- In cases where your company or products promote other technologies or protocols, you lead with and make Z-Wave prominent.
- Your demo table displays (if applicable) will be professional in appearance and content will be pre-approved.
- You agree to keep to your assigned demo table area and to not block other members access to attendees.
- You agree to make every effort to support your fellow members and to explain the concept and value of interoperability.
- Z-Wave Alliance may use your company logo in conjunction with your sponsorship.

The Z-Wave Alliance agrees:

- To discourage any behavior that blocks equal access to attendees by all demo table participants.
- To actively promote the Sponsor's participation through any of the following: press releases, websites, social media.
- The Alliance reserves the right to make exceptions regarding Sponsor participation as listed above.
